October 2022

October 2

TED Talk: The Power of Vulnerability

Brené Brown studies human connection -- our ability to empathize, belong, love. In a poignant, funny talk, she shares a deep insight from her research, one that sent her on a personal quest to know herself as well as to understand humanity.

October 9

Courage to Resist Injustice

“Courage” means the power of the heart. We explore heart-based social activism: “We need the courage to question the powers that be, the courage to be impatient with evil and patient with people” [Cornel West]. “Courage is not the absence of fear, but rather the judgment that something else is more important than fear” [Ambrose Redmoon]. Service led by Rev. Mary

We’ll have an update from Meg McIntyre, Interim Director, Lorain County Safe Harbor/Genesis House, Cause of the Month for October.

October 16

The Voice of Courage through Poetry & Music

This will be a flow of poetry and music with short reflections on the selected examples. What music, poetry, or combination of sensory experiences inspires courage in you?

Service lead by Katie Cross, Ann Cook-Frantz and Kathleen Carothers.

October 23

Courage to Take a Leap

Courage to take a leap, to risk failure, to learn to fly: "Come to the edge. We might fall. Come to the edge. It's too high! COME TO THE EDGE! And they came. And she pushed. And they flew." [adapted from Christopher Logue] What do you already know about leaps of faith? What leaps of faith have you made in your life? What didn't go the way you expected? What leap of faith do you need to take, do we need to take? How might we encourage each other? Service led by Rev. Mary and Zellda Zellely.

October 30

Samhain

We have no choice but to be haunted. Long after a loved one or friend dies, we still have undelivered messages for that person. This service, drawing on pre-Christian traditions of the Celts, addresses that unmet need. All are welcome. Joys and concerns will be omitted for this service.

Mary's Musings

Courage to Dance in the Turning

The English word, "Courage," literally means the power of the heart. Courage, the power of the heart, is our focus for October. It takes courage to let summer go, to celebrate the beauty of the leaves turning orange/yellow/red, knowing trees will stand bare, waiting, through winter, fast approaching. It takes courage to face autumn in this 3rd year of pandemic. The unknown. Nothing covering it up. Part of me resists, even as I marvel at fall's finale of color. How do we motivate ourselves to let go of that which is passing away? How do we accept and even celebrate that which is arising and falling away within us and all around us? I hear the words of Marge Piercy, "I do not seek to stop this wheel of change, but to dance in its turning." When I read her words, I felt caught in the act: I was trying to stop the wheel of change, as my youngest child finished high school. Excited for him, I needed to feel the heaviness at the loss of his childhood. I needed to grieve, so I could celebrate his transformation into a young adult. I hung a banner of her words across the archway to my kitchen and set my intention to dance. Today, I remember as a child jumping with glee in neatly raked piles of leaves. As I write, the trees dance in the wind and rain. Right here, in this moment, the rain subsides and all is well. I dance in these words. In the midst of morphing pandemic. In the midst of uncharted change. And beneath these words I feel quiet joy, waiting to respond with courage, as needed.

October 2022 Cause of the Month

As part of our covenant with one another, OUUF members have made a commitment to live our values in the world through Causes of the Month, which we support through our offering.

August 2022 Cause of the Month: Lorain County Safe Harbor/Genesis House

As part of our covenant with one another, OUUF members have made a commitment to live our values in the world through Causes of the Month, which we support through our offering. The cause for September 2022 is Lorain County Safe Harbor/Genesis House.

Lorain County Safe Harbor/Genesis House is Lorain County's only domestic violence shelter, providing temporary safety, shelter, food, aid, and support to the victims of domestic violence and their children who have reached the decision to leave the violent situation. It is part of a collaborative community effort to provide a responsive system of care for victims while also raising awareness.

We'll share a video update about the program from Meg McIntyre, Interim Director of Lorain County Safe Harbor/Genesis House, at our October 9 service.

Adult Programs

Mondays:

OUUF Men's Group, Mondays, 7-9 p.m., hybrid meeting

The mission of the OUUF Men's Group is to:

- Support each other as men for positive participation in living the Unitarian Universalist principles in our personal and community lives.
- Strengthen our bond and covenant together, expressing feelings at deepening levels, speaking from the heart and listening actively without judgment.
- Facilitate personal and congregational spiritual growth in beloved community.

Our relationships exist in the space between us, which is sacred (Martin Buber). We honor that space through the use of Essential Silence, I-Statements, and Active Deep Listening. Come once a week, once a month, or once a year. If you identify as male and generally agree with the principles of Unitarian Universalism we hope to see you here.
